1. Please rank your interest in the following programs:

_____ Legal Research and Writing (year-long; 4 credits)

_____ Legal Writing for International L.L.M. students (fall only, 3 credits) (NOTE: if the International Program is your first choice, we will forward your application to Prof. Larson).

2. Please briefly describe your writing experience (undergraduate, graduate, employment, moot court, law review, other journal, clerkship, seminar, competitions, etc.).

3. Will you work next year? If so, please describe the nature of your work and provide an estimate of the number of hours per week you will work. Exclude items listed in the next question.

4. Will you participate in any of the following activities? If so, please check and indicate how approximately many hours per week you anticipate you will spend on each activity.

Clinical Course	_____
Journal	_____
Moot Court Board	_____
Externship	_____

5. List any classes you must take next year. Please note that legal writing classes sometimes conflict with other classes. Senior Fellows must attend all LRW class meetings and may not register for classes that overlap with their LRW class. Please consult the fall 2023 registration materials and disclose any potential class conflicts here. All class conflicts must be listed on this application.

6. What was your grade in Legal Research and Writing? Who was your Legal Research and Writing Professor?

7. What is your current grade point average?

8. Please list a law professor who could recommend you (no written recommendation should be submitted; informal consultation may take place with the professor you name).

9. Explain why you want to be a Senior Fellow. If you are applying to work in the international L.L.M. program, please address specifically why you are interested in working with international L.L.M. candidates.

10. Please e-mail a current copy of your resume to Ms. Washington along with this application.
